

John Reginaldi – Bio

John is a Regional Liaison Officer with the Maryland Emergency Management Agency. He is the Past President of Maryland InfraGard Chapter. He also served as the Mass Causality/Physical Security Special Interest Group (SIG) Chair for the organization.

John has a strong background in physical security and safety. He has performed numerous investigations during his 30 years in the public/private security safety arena. John is experienced in Emergency Management Planning, Response, Recovery, and COOP planning.

John is a retired Baltimore County Police Detective (Crime Prevention Specialist); Past President of the Maryland Crime Prevention Association; past member of the American Society for Industrial Security (ASIS) and International Association of Emergency Managers. He has conducted over 2,000 comprehensive security and safety vulnerability assessments throughout the United States for school systems, industry, businesses, government agencies and non-profit organizations. John served as an adjunct Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design instructor for the Mid-Atlantic Regional Community Policing Institute, which falls under the auspices of the Johns Hopkins University Continuing Studies Program. He also has worked within the private security industry and the Intelligence Community at the National Security Agency (NSA) and Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA).

John is a Certified Instructor with the Maryland Police and Correctional Training Commission, prior Harford County teacher and high school football, wrestling and track coach and has a Master's degree in Legal Studies from the University of Baltimore.

Contact Information

John S. Reginaldi

Regional Liaison Officer

Maryland Emergency Management Agency

5401 Rue Saint Lo Drive

Reisterstown, MD 21136

john.reginaldi@maryland.gov

Cell: 443-865-9514

Headquarters: 410-517-3600

Fax: 410-517-3610

