

---

SJR SECURITY CONSULTING SERVICES, LLC

---

Steven W. Rutledge

Steve serves as the President and Chief Operating Officer of SJR Security Consulting Services, LLC bringing more than 29+ years of security experience to this role.

SJR, a Veteran Owned Small Business, provides a full range of security consulting services including:

- Security Strategy & Program Management
- Workplace Violence Prevention & Planning
- Insider Threat
- Private Investigations – Registered with the Virginia Department of Criminal Justice Services (DCJS) #99-466419
- Policy & Procedures Development
- Critical Infrastructure Protection
- Risk Management
- Security Assessments
- OPSEC
- Security Education
- Crisis Management/Contingency Planning
- Antiterrorism/Force Protection
- Physical Security and numerous other security disciplines

Prior to forming SJR, Mr. Rutledge was Vice President of Security for TASC, joining the company in 2007. At TASC he oversaw all aspects of security. This includes supporting contracts involving classified activities as well as specialized services encompassing personnel, physical, program and information systems security, operational security, document control, crisis management, international security and security education and awareness.

Prior to TASC, Mr. Rutledge served as Director of Security for the Civilian Agencies Group and the Enterprise Infrastructure group of Northrop Grumman. Prior to his positions with Northrop Grumman and TASC, Mr. Rutledge held a number of positions in the private sector supporting the Intelligence Community, Department of Defense and numerous Civilian Agencies with a focus on physical security, anti-terrorism planning, force protection, contingency planning and security risk assessments.

Mr. Rutledge is a Veteran of the United States Marine Corps.