

Bio
Davita N. Carpenter, SHRM-SCP

Davita is a student athlete alumni of Syracuse University with a M.B.A. in Business from Strayer University. She is a seasoned professional with over 25 years of experience in Human Resources and Consulting to include over 8 years of international HR (federal contracting - SCA/DBA) with multiple U.S. locations managing HR generalists and managers, as well as two start-ups.

Her professional career includes consulting and directing HR activities (cleared, contractor, union/non-union) in such industries as Government Contracting, Healthcare, Higher Education, Ed-Tech and IT.

Davita's field of expertise includes Strategic Management, HR/Operations Consulting, Training Design/Facilitation, Policy/Procedure Design & Administration, and Employment Law/Relations.

She is an approved Channel Partner within the Ken Blanchard Partner Network to facilitate Coaching Essentials, DISCovering Self & Others, and First Time Managers/Manager's Essentials. As a Servant Leader, she believes It is important to not only be an integral part of an organization, but also within the secular/non-secular and political community in which it serves and employ its members.

Davita has completed extensive doctoral coursework in Advanced Human Behavior and Innovation and Strategy at Capella University.

She resides in Maryland with her two sons and has authored the fiction novel Woman to Woman. When she grows up, she would like to travel the world, author books and speak on the positivities & possibilities of life. To learn more about Davita, visit www.DavitaNicole.com